FES – DGA Frequently Asked Questions

- Start by visiting https://www.dga.org/Employers/BecomingSignatory.aspx for information, applications and forms for new companies that wish to become a signatory of the DGA.

- See FES Info document for assistance in completing DGA Signatory Application
    - You'll need to include your FES Business & Legal Rep's name and the date copyright was applied for before submitting the application

- Based on the forms submitted, your DGA rep will provide the following financial assurance documents for you to complete and return to her:

    - Security Agreement
    - Guaranty Agreement(s)
    - Intercreditor Agreement

- You will have to sign the Intercreditor and Security Agreement before you send to FES for our signature. Please send those requests to your Production Exec, FES Business & Legal Rep, and Tanya Miller (tanya.miller@fox.com).

- Tanya will also provide Chain of Title documentation when you need that.

- Reminders:

    - Upon receipt of the email from your DGA Rep notifying you of the security deposit amount, you must forward the email to your FES Production Exec and Production Finance to ensure that FES can timely fund the deposit amount to you on top of your cash flow.

    - Additionally, upon receipt of the email from your DGA Rep notifying you that the production is officially approved, you must forward the email to your Production Exec and studio.production@fox.com.

    - Finally, upon receipt of the email from the DGA Rep notifying you that the security deposit is cleared for return, you must forward the email to your Production Exec and Production Finance.
